

The Guardian, Saturday 24 May 2008

10 European seaside hotels

La Chiusa delle More Peschici, Puglia, Italy

The Italians flock here in August. Out of season, however, the beaches and fish restaurants are wonderfully uncrowded; on the seafront, you can watch the fishermen sort their catch. The 16th-century farmhouse on the Puglian coast is 500m from the sea: climb up to the terrace from where you can drink in the views with your wine. The B&B rooms, in a small block to one side, are light, cool and simply furnished. The olive oil and vegetables from the kitchen garden supply the restaurant which serves typical Puglian dishes and the local wines.

• La Chiusa delle More (0039 34 7057 7272, lachiusedellemore.it) from €160 per double B&B. €30 supplement per person half-board.